Landscaping

Did you know that landscaping can lower your energy bills? According to Energy.gov, a well-designed landscape can save enough on energy bills to pay for itself in less than eight years - by lowering maintenance, reducing water use, cutting heating and cooling costs, protecting your home from cold winter winds and hot summer sun, and lowering noise and air pollution. Read more...

Keeping Kids Cool

Keeping the kids entertained during summer vacation can be a challenge for a parent. Try a few of these ideas and help them beat the heat too, inside and out. Remember, sometimes it's all right to be all wet. Have fun, but keep it safe. Read more...
